

Spring & Summer 2025 Opportunities

2025 FHC Research & Creative Expression Symposium

This opportunity is for all Pitt undergraduates, especially FHC students and recipients of FHC administered fellowships to present their research or creative work to peers and faculty from a variety of fields across the university on Friday, March 28th at the University Club on the Pittsburgh Campus

Click for more information & to apply by Wednesday, February 26th.

*****

FHC Summer 2025 Research, Creative & Community Opportunities

The David C. Frederick Honors College (FHC) supports undergraduate students pursuing research, creative, and public service programs during the summer. Detailed information and applications for each program are at the links below.

Community Engaged Learning Programs

Contact: Dr. Catherine Cordova, catherine.cordova@pitt.edu

- Frederick/Keefe Public Service Internships
- Community Research Fellowship

Research & Creative Programs

These applications require a recommendation form to be completed by both the student and their faculty mentor. Download the form from Google Drive or OneDrive.

Contact: Dr. Josh Cannon or Ms. Abby Chen, fhcresearchinfo@groups.pitt.edu.

- Brackenridge Fellowship
Applicants may also opt into one of these collaborating programs:
  - Brackenridge Sustainability Scholars or the
  - Dick Thornburgh Undergraduate Fellowship Program
- Creative Arts Fellowship
- Health Science Research Fellowship

Applications for all programs are due Wednesday, February 26th.